Washington, DC 20005

Dear Mr. Jones:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2016-000758) submitted May 11, 2016 in which you requested:

"Records for all premium-class travel tickets submitted to the Government Services Administration since January 1, 2015 until the date of your response. This includes, but is not limited to, the department and individual for which the ticket was purchased, the purpose for the travel, the origination and destination of the flights as well as the total cost."

The GSA did not purchase any premium class accommodations (now called "other-than- coach) during the time period for this FOIA request, January 1, 2015 through today, June 1, 2016. This response does not include employees from the Office of Inspector General and the Office of Civilian Board of Contract Appeals. These offices will respond directly to your request for information.

With this being said, GSA does not have records responsive to your request. This is not a denial of records under FOIA. You may appeal our search for records no later than one hundred and twenty (120) days from receipt of this letter by writing to the following address:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center (H1F)
1800 F Street, NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405

Your appeal should contain a brief statement of the reasons why you believe GSA should have responsive records. Enclose a copy of your initial request and this letter. Both the appeal letter and the envelope should be marked prominently, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

This completes our action on this request. If you have additional press related questions regarding this request, please feel free to email Ms. Ashley Nash-Hahn, GSA Press Secretary, at media@gsa.gov.

Sincerely,

Travis Lewis
